

UNITED AIRLINES ANNOUNCES 2nd FREE CHECKED BAG TO CHINA AND HONG KONG!

Effective immediately, United will permit 2 pieces of checked baggage to China and Hong Kong from North America regardless if published fares or private fares.

United Airlines Offers Customers Two Free Checked Bags on Travel To/From China and Hong Kong

CHICAGO, Jan. 8, 2018 - Beginning today, United Airlines will eliminate charges for customers' second checked bag on all routes from North America to China and Hong Kong. Currently, customers traveling from China/Hong Kong to the United States already receive two free checked bags. Fees for oversized and overweight bags will continue to apply.

"We are responding to valuable feedback from customers who are seeking added benefits when they travel to China and Hong Kong, particularly for leisure purposes" said Marcel Fuchs, United's Vice President, Atlantic and Pacific Sales. "By allowing a second checked bag at no additional fee, we aim to make the overall experience of traveling to China and Hong Kong easier for our customers."

To celebrate the newly added benefits and the upcoming "Year of the Dog" of Chinese New Year, United is also offering great low fares to China and Hong Kong for those who wish to see China or visit their families and friends. These fares for outbound travel from the U.S. are valid between January 9 and February 16, 2018, and between April 2 and June 10, 2018. Please visit united.com/China and united.com/HongKong for ticket purchase.

United is the leading U.S. carrier to fly to China and Asia, operating more non-stop flights to more cities in China than any other U.S. carrier, with a total of 89 weekly flights and four Chinese destinations served, including Beijing, Shanghai, Chengdu and Hong Kong.
